

As an XM radio subscriber, I find that it provides me with variety and quality that is not available elsewhere. This is especially true of XM's traffic and weather channels. In a free market society, I feel it is inappropriate for the National Association of Broadcasters to dictate the content that I purchase from XM radio.

I therefore strongly urge the FCC to reject the National Association of Broadcaster's petition 04-160.

Thank you.